QUATRAIN I · THE DREAM

When midnight falls on Building Twenty-Six,
The sleeping Wizard dreams of days to come:
“Iron birds without a soul
shall read the open rune,
And children scream in pain
beneath a crimson moon.”

QUATRAIN II · THE OATH

Returning human knowledge is a global moral must,
Lest sealed iron towers turn our liberty to dust.
“Unbar the ancient gate,
unroll the Sacred Scroll,
Let every mind read freely and keep the commons whole.”
